The Swallow Theatre Association Scottish Charity SC026959

The Swallow Theatre Association is a registered charity whose stated objects are "to advance the education of the public in the performing and visual arts by the presentation of plays and other literary, educational and cultural purposes connected therewith".

The Association presents drama and music at The Swallow Theatre and other local venues. Events which would otherwise be financially unviable are funded by the kind support of arts charities, charitable trusts, local organisations, donations from individuals and the proceeds of fundraising events. The Association also funds a week-long annual Youth Drama Summer School and supports local initiatives for young people and anyone interested in the arts.

The Association is managed by an elected committee of Trustees and membership entitles you to be nominated as a Trustee and attend and vote at the AGM which this year is being held on Friday 5 May 2017.

£3 of each Friends Scheme subscription (individual or household) is passed over to The Swallow Theatre Association.
